

ANNOUNCEMENT

We regret to announce that due to increased cancellations of flight bookings to New York City, we have pushed back the resumption of our service to this destination to 29th November.

We greatly appreciate the interest and support of our customers who had booked with us and have made alternative arrangements for their travel.

We sincerely apologise for the inconvenience caused.

Corporate Communications

31 October 2020